SNOW DATE: Saturday, March 1st

Saturday, March 8, 2008

SNOW DATE: Saturday, March 15th

Saturday, March 22, 2008

SNOW DATE: Saturday, March 29th

NOTE: The regularly scheduled dates do not conflict with Nashua Valley Councils Merit Badge College so you have the opportunity to earn up to 4 merit badges between the two merit badge colleges.

On each date, two merit badge sessions are offered:

Period 1: 8:00 am to 9:30 am

Period 2: 9:40 am to 11:10 am

The following Merit Badges will be offered:

Communications (Eagle Req.)

Soil and Water Conservation

Citizenship in the World (Eagle Req.)

Indian Lore

Citizenship in the Nation (Eagle Req.)

First Aid (Eagle Req)²

Sculpture ($5 additional charge for materials)

Wood Carving²

Personal Management (Eagle Req)¹

Surveying³

Fish and Wildlife Management

1. The ninety-day portion must be started prior to class in order to complete the merit badge during Merit Badge College. Otherwise, it can be started during class and the counselor will be available to counsel the Scout to the end.
2. First Aid and Wood Carving are a pair – if you choose one, the other goes with it – no negotiation. Class is limited to the first 12 Scouts.
3. Class is limited to 12 Scouts – first come, first serve.

Cost of this year's Daniel Webster Council merit badge college is $12 and includes a merit badge booklet for each merit badge (2) and a patch. There are no discounts for Scouts who already have the merit badge booklet.
